

NATIONAL POLICE WEEK 2015

HONORING COURAGE, SALUTING SACRIFICE

In 1962 President Kennedy proclaimed the week in which May 15th falls as National Police Week. This week is set aside to pay special recognition to all of the law enforcement officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty. The Walterboro Police Department honors three of our own fallen heroes, Officer Marion Nettles Sr (end of watch December 1949), Officer Frank Knapp (end of watch November 1968), and Officer William Breland III (end of watch October 1978.) This week shall serve as a reminder of the sacrifices these men made for the protection of the citizens of the City of Walterboro.
